

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was established by people with hard work, perseverance, and dedication to duty to provide for their families and their fellow man; and,

Whereas, Forest Walter began his employment with the state of South Dakota on April 29, 1991, and has given 20 years of service as a Natural Resources Well Technician with the South Dakota Department of Environment and Natural Resources; and,

Whereas, Forest approaches his work in a professional manner with a commitment to doing the job right; and,

Whereas, Forest will take with him a wealth of technical, practical knowledge, and experience which will be missed by the Water Rights Program and Department of Environment and Natural Resources; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the many accomplishments, devotion, and years of service of this special South Dakotan:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 27, 2011, as in South Dakota, and I join his family, friends, and colleagues in wishing him good health and happiness in his well deserved retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirteenth Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard
